

CASE RESULT TEMPLATE

TITLE:

This appears in Google, on the top of the article's page, as well as in the main list of articles on the attorney's site. No more than 60 characters, including spaces. Make it interesting and be sure to keep pertinent information within the first 60 characters. More than 60 characters will be indexed by Google; however, only the first 60 will be displayed in search results.

META DESCRIPTION:

(This appears in Google and is a brief, interesting description of the article. No more than 160 characters, including spaces. Include focus keyword.)

CONTENT:

- Be interesting and tell the story. Be as specific as possible regarding the types of injuries, as well as companies involved.
- Make sure to include the conclusion of the story (what happened, how much was the person awarded, what types of injuries did they receive compensation for, etc.) Provide hope for other victims in similar situations.
- Use bulleted lists and subheadings as much as possible.
- Add links back to relevant pages within the content.
- You may also add external links to reputable sites for more information on studies, etc., as well as internal links to corresponding articles when appropriate. However, DO NOT OVER LINK. 1-2 links per article maximum.
- End with a subtle call to action. For example, "If you or a loved one has been through a similar experience, or if you are struggling with a complex accident claim, don't hesitate to contact us at 555.555.5555."

AWARD SUMMARY:

(This is free-form text that will display on the website. For example, "$3,600,000," or "Confidential.")

AWARD TO SORT BY:

(An integral number—for example, 3600000 (NO commas)—must be entered if you'd like your case result to be sorted from highest amount to lowest. Do not fill out this section if you want the result to be listed last. This value will NOT display on your website.)

PRACTICE AREA:

(List the corresponding practice area from your website.)
